

House Resolution No. 129

Whereas, from time to time the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize the meritorious accomplishments of an outstanding Missourian who has positively touched the lives of countless residents of the Show-Me State; and

Whereas, Keith Hazelwood has been chosen as the deserving recipient of the Lifetime Distinguished Service Civic Award by the St. Charles Chamber of Commerce, an impressive accolade that he will receive during the 2004 Citizen of the Years Annual Banquet on January 21, 2005, at the Columns Banquet Center; and

Whereas, Keith Hazelwood has dealt with real estate law since beginning law practice in September 1970, since which time he has given abundantly to the area in civic activities; and

Whereas, Keith Hazelwood is the former President of the St. Charles Chamber of Commerce and a former member of the Board of Directors for such organizations as the Discovery Expedition of St. Charles, St. Louis 2004, the St. Louis Regional Commerce and Growth Association, the Urban Choice Coalition, the Boys and Girls Town of Missouri, and St. Peters Hospital; and

Whereas, Keith Hazelwood has also served on the Page Bridge Committee, the St. Charles County Solid Waste Advisory Committee, and the Task Force on Public Education in St. Charles County; and

Whereas, Keith Hazelwood graduated from Taylor High School and Dartmouth College and earned a law degree at Washington University School of Law; and

Whereas, it is most fitting and proper that this legislative body pay tribute to Keith Hazelwood, an uncommon leader who can best be described as dedicated, devoted, and visionary - traits which make people true leaders; and

Whereas, Keith Hazelwood has been blessed with the love and support of a wonderful family whose members include his wife, Ann Meyer Hazelwood, and two sons, Royce William and Robert Spencer:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, unanimously join the St. Charles Chamber of Commerce in extending our most hearty congratulations to Keith Hazelwood upon his well-deserved selection to receive the Lifetime Distinguished Service Award and in wishing him continued prosperity in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Keith Hazelwood.
